

LAS CANDALISTAS JUNE NEWSLETTER

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

I'd like to raise a glass to all of you for a successful year on so many levels! You chaired committees within events, worked on committees for events, worked at events, attended events, spread the word, donated, helped each other out, made new friends, made memories, and had fun too! We met all our fundraising goals and more, thanks to all of you!!! And we updated our Bylaws and Standing Rules which were much needed.

Extra Special Cheers to our:

Board of Directors: Chair Amy Mosher; Secretary Sharon Logan; Members Janie Woodburn, Carla Smith, and Gina Radocchio worked on the Bylaw and Standing Rules amendments and made sure Las Candalistas ran smoothly all year.

Fall Event Chairs: First time event chairs Amy Mosher and Debbie Bramhall did a spectacular job on a new event, 'Between the Covers,' They had a vision of a literary luncheon, and they brought it to life! It was so successful we're doing a second one this Fall.

Spring Event Chairs: Nanci Browning, Cheryl Deppe, Selina Hamilton, and Danielle Weinstock. I just can't stop talking about Havana Nights and what a memorable and successful evening that was. Everything about this event was outstanding.

1st VPs Philanthropy: Lisa Nesicolaci and Debbie Sampson worked hard on building better relationships with our charities and introduced new ways to interact with them. They are thinking outside the box and it's exciting! We are creating an even stronger bond with our community thanks to these two.

2nd VPs Ways and Means: Lynda Black and Debbie Bramhall continued building stronger relations with our sponsors and community partners and ensuring that our events have all the i's dotted, and t's crossed. They have made such a difference!

3rd VPs Membership: Susan Yamate and Randi Young did a fantastic job taking care of our Provisionals, worked hard on updating the standing rules and creating a volunteer form, and were always thinking of and implementing ways to make membership better. They have had a busy but successful year!

Parliamentarian Brenda Holcomb did fabulous work with our standing rules and bylaws amendments and making sure our general meetings ran smoothly. Shout out to Danielle Weinstock for all her help with Zoom!

Corresponding Secretary Karen Stockbridge reformatted the roster so it looks better and is easier to update. It was not easy! And she always made sure we were up to date with timely newsletters and eblasts. She did a great job as 'mistress of communications.'

Recording Secretary Lorri Mino didn't miss anything and kept amazing notes. Be careful what you say at a meeting, she'll put it in the minutes.

Treasurer: Lucy Huebner, our new Treasurer, had big shoes to fill but did a wonderful job of taking care of our finances!

Friends and Family (Jams and Jellies): Kathy Black and Cathy Howard were new chairs to this important committee. They did a wonderful job carrying on a Las Candalistas tradition and their very hard work is so appreciated!

Adopt a Family: Kathy Black and Cathy Howard didn't rest after Friends and Family and went above and beyond in ensuring in-need families had a happy holiday!

Small Social FUNdraisers: Selina Hamilton organized several fun and successful small fundraisers as Chair of this new committee. I learned a few things! These events helped members get to know each other better as well.

Sunshine and Rain: Carla Smith and Karyn Farris were unfortunately busy but took good care of our members who needed TLC.

Thrift: Donna Ciminera and Jan Raymond continued collecting thrift items throughout the year and delivering to our philanthropies. And of course, collecting items through the year for the holiday toiletry bag program. They've been doing this since 2007! Shout out to Barb Morel who helps underwrite the holiday toiletry bag program every year. And who approached Bombas for socks. It took two years for them to respond but now we will receive Bombas socks every year!

Excursions: Cindy Macfarlane, Shelley Pogorelsky, and Trish Winchester did a fun excursion to the Huntington! They did their best to organize more fun trips, but it just didn't pan out this year. Your efforts are appreciated!

Bunco: Hollidae Brown and Paula Redmond organized the fun games and kept the dice rolling! I won big at one of the nights!

Book Club: Marlyn Franklin organized the meetings and book suggestions. She loves to read, and it shows!

Donor Snap: Polly Goodman once again led this very important job of tracking and thanking our donors. She deserves extra applause! Polly has also trained Tracy Glover this year who is doing great!

Storage: Polly Goodman's second important job: managing the contents of our storage unit. Thanks Polly!

Greater Giving Event Software: Irene Almeida, Kathy Black, and Debbie Bramhall are experts at reservations and check-in! Lynda Black worked the back end, creating the ticket sale website. Utilizing this software at our fundraising events has been a game changer for us. This software is now crucial to our events.

Bulk Mailings: Irene Almeida was our liaison with the post office and organized bulk mail parties. (they're a lot of work!)

Ralphs Community Contribution Program Coordinator: Cheryl Deppe made sure our Ralphs donations came through! This is quite a profitable program. Sign up if you shop at Ralphs.

The Insider, our annual public newsletter: Karen Stockbridge created the best Insider yet! She's been our Insider creator since we started sending them, about 10 years ago!

Wyland Foundation Mobile Learning Center Liaison: Kathy Black organized visits to local elementary schools. So important to teach children the importance of saving and protecting our oceans and waterways.

Website: Janis Davis McGarry and yours truly are still the webmistresses. This was a big year as our website was rebuilt. Check it out if you haven't seen it. And sign up for the Members only section if you haven't yet.

Digital Marketing: This is also my job. I create the Constant Contact email marketing campaigns for our events and social media posts on Facebook and Instagram. Thank you to Stacey Navarro for her posts, shares and social media expertise. She has helped us get more followers! It really makes a difference.

As far as my personal thoughts on the closing of the year... I feel I accomplished my mission of: Respect our History – Each newsletter had a History Lesson.

Celebrate our Present – We had more social gatherings with our Small Social FUNdraisers, Bunco, Book Club, Excursions and more.

Envision our Future – We amended portions of our Bylaws and Standing Rules that were sorely needed. They now better reflect where our organization is today and where we are going. And we are embracing technology more with our revamped website, utilization of Greater Giving Event Software, and social media posts. Lastly, we are connecting more with our philanthropies and the South Bay community in general. Very exciting!

It has been a pleasure to serve as President, I have truly enjoyed the year. I'll close with a quote as by now you all know I really like to use them:

Have a wonderful summer! On to our 2024-25 season!

Laura Henson-Broussard
President

MAY GENERAL MEETING NOTES

If you missed the May General Meeting, you missed a good one!

The numbers from Havana Nights are in and the net proceeds from the event are at least $65,000! This is fabulous for our philanthropies.

Thank you to author Rebecca Forster for speaking at our May General Meeting! Rebecca dazzled us with her stories! She also raffled off 3 of her books and the winner of one of the books will also be a character in her next book! Rebecca will be the moderator at our 2024 Fall Fundraising Event and she got us fired up for it! Chairs Jan Schlesinger and Kelly Reinart gave us preliminary info on the event, but you'll hear a lot more at the June Luncheon!

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Dear Board Members, Officers, President of Las Candalistas,

As this year comes to a close, I am filled with immense gratitude for the extraordinary dedication and efforts each one of you has contributed to our organization. It is through your unwavering commitment and collaborative spirit that Las Candalistas continues to thrive and make a measurable impact in our community.

Reflecting on this year, we have faced challenges, yet our resilience and innovative approaches have enabled us to achieve remarkable results. From our successful fundraising events to our impactful outreach programs, each initiative has been a testament to our shared vision and hard work.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to each board member: Sharon Logan, Janie Woodburn, Gina Radocchio and Carla Smith for your strategic insights and steadfast support. Your guidance has been crucial in steering our organization towards achieving its goals. To our officers, your operational excellence and leadership have ensured that our day-to-day activities ran smoothly and efficiently. And to our President, Laura Henson-Broussard, your inspirational leadership and passion have been the driving force behind our success and modernization.

As we prepare to embark on a new fiscal year, let us carry forward the momentum we have built. I am confident that with our collective efforts, we will continue to expand our reach and enhance our impact in the community.

Thank you once again for your exceptional contributions and dedication. I am truly honored to work alongside such a talented and passionate group of women. Wishing you all a restful break and looking forward to another year of success and fulfillment.

Warm regards,

Amy Mosher, Chairman of the Board

Sharon Logan, Janie Woodburn, Gina Radocchio and Carla Smith

Fall Event 2024- “Between the Lines”

This fall, November 1, 2024 we will hold another author’s luncheon. We will have four diverse authors, a silent auction, vendors, food, fun , drinks and a little something for everyone. We will be back at the Palos Verdes Golf Course. Of course no event with LC is complete without the help of our fabulous members and now the “Good Guys” as well. We will be working on things during the summer so please sign up at the June meeting or contact either one of us to offer up your time, talent, services, items to donate and special interest. Jan Schlesinger (320-249-6125) and Kelly Reinart (616) 706-7440

Thank you in advance for all of you support.

Philanthropy

We would like to thank our membership for their immense generosity this year! We collected and delivered donations to 7 charities throughout the year, who were thrilled with all of the items.

We also took a hike with the PV Land Conservancy and learned about our native plants and wildlife. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Now it is time to distribute all of the funds that we have worked so hard to raise. Our Philanthropy Distribution Meeting will be held via Zoom on Monday, June 3rd at 1:00 pm. All members are welcome, but the Officers and Board of Directors make the final decisions. A spreadsheet listing the primary and secondary requests of each of our philanthropies is attached for your review.

Philanthropy nominations for 2024/2025 are due by June 30th . If you would like to nominate a charity, you must fill out a nomination form and you will need 2 members' signatures besides your own. You can email your form to Lisanesi90@yahoo.com or you can take a picture and send it. The following charities have been nominated so far:

- Boys & Girls Club of LA Harbor
- Cancer Support Community
- Community's Child
- International Bird Rescue
- Los Serenos de Ponte Vincente
- Marine Mammal Care
- Rainbow Services

In August we will hold our annual Philanthropy Selection Meeting. Please check your emails in the coming weeks for date, time and place.

We have exciting things planned for the upcoming year! We will be kicking it off with a tour of the Botanic Gardens on Wednesday, July 17 th at 10:00.

More details to follow.

BOOK CLUB

Book Club is taking a summer break. We will begin our new year on Wednesday, September 25 at 4:30 pm. at Judy Moorhead's home.

Our first book of the new year will be the best seller THE WOMEN by Kristin Hannah, so add it to your summer reading list.

from the NEW YORK TIMES...This is a story of a woman gone to war, but it shines the light on all women who put themselves in harm's way and who committed to their country, but have been too often overlooked. Their idealism and courage under fire will come to define an era. It was a fun year for our group, and we are now looking forward to next year. Enjoy your summer!!!

SUNSHINE AND RAIN

We had a difficult year, with the losses of members and their loved ones. We end with a reminder of why our Sunshine and Rain gals are so important to keeping our sisters in our hearts-

Dear Carla and Ladies of Las Candalistas,

Thank you for the beautiful bromeliad plant - it's one of my favorites. Thank you also for all of the wonderful cards offering comfort and strength during Joe's illness and passing. I so appreciate all of the kindness and support that has been given to me. Our ladies are so wonderful, and I am proud to be a member of such an amazing organization.

*Thank you,
Gina Radocchio*

HISTORY LESSON #9

I hope you have enjoyed reading my History Lessons as much as I enjoyed researching and writing them. I learned a lot! Las Candalistas has a rich history in the South Bay.

My last post will be..... me! I am approaching my 20th year as a member, so I guess I'm part of our history now?

The first photo was taken at my first Spring Event, Walk on the Wildside, in April of 2006, at RPV City Hall. The theme was Mardi Gras, and I was dressed as a jester, haha. My job was Bake Shop.

The second photo is me at our latest Spring Event, Havana Nights, April 27th, 2024, at the Norris Pavilion! I've come a long way from that jester. If you had asked the me in the first photo if I had any desire to ever be President, I would have said "Heck No!" But, over time, as I became more involved and invested in our group, especially as an officer, BOD member and event chair, it finally happened. I encourage all of you to become as engaged as possible in this organization, the benefits are amazing. Step out of your comfort zone and grow. Plus, it is truly rewarding work. If this introvert can do it, you can too!
